

Inula is one of the daisy family. It likes dry grassy and rocky places on Limestone. Found often at the edges of woods and round the coast. Even growing in walls and cliffs.

Inula conyzae

4 figure	Site	Grid Ref	Recorder	Date	Number	Comments
4477	Grubbins Wood	SD4442277810	AK	23/08/23	1 spike	Just outside Grubbins Wood under trees on shoreline 444778
4573	Jack Scout	SD4588373729	AK	28/07/23	1 spike	1 spike on rocky slope
4575	Silverdale Cove area	SD4540875812	LF/SB	22/10/23	5 plants	with crithmum
4673	Browns Ho/Heald Brow	SD4613173436	AK	15/08/23	1 clump	one of 8 large plants by the roadside between gps and cattle grid
4770	Warton Slag heaps	SD4787570555	LF/SB	11/08/23	several	scattered along slag bank
4774	Myers Allotment	SD4748974873	AK	18/08/23	1 plant	i large clump at the bottom of the limestone hillock in the bottom corner
4780	Friends of storth path	SD4736380118	AK	21/07/23	1 plant	half way up the path through Friends of Storth land
4870	Warton Slag heaps	SD4816370799	LF/SB	11/08/23	several	several plants on slag bank near race course, also 4832170943 and 4827270884
4871	Warton Slag heaps	SD4854771108	LF/SB	04/08/23	lots	at least 500 plants in all stages along strip 48743.71317 to 4854771108
4875	Trowbarrow	SD4875				Trowbarrow Quarry Waste ground side
4877	Gait Barrows area	SD4824177228	AK	27/08/23	1	Gait Barrows just north east of Cairn on path to shed up steps
4878	Underlaid Coldwell Farm	SD4878				Underlaid Wood in old Quarry at 482787
4880	Sandside/haverbrack	SD4880				Haverbrack common around quarry edge and by pavement

